GATHERING

Prelude

Call to Worship

One: We invite the forests to worship with us:

Many: mountain ash and vibrant maples,
quivering ferns and glistening moss!

One: We invite tall trees to celebrate life:

Many: to lift green leaves in the breeze
and sing oxygen into the air.

One: We call to the forest to sing in the night:

Many: green tree frogs and timid moths,
butterflies and swirling bats!

One: We join with the fauna of the forest in praising God:

Many: redwinged blackbirds and hummingbirds,
creeping things and butterflies.

One: We celebrate the song of the forest!

Many: Sing, forest, sing!

Transitions

One: This pitcher is a symbol of transition and self-discovery for our congregation. Our pastor, Megan Ramer, will be taking a new position in Seattle. Just as water takes on many forms and gives life, so we renew our dedication to one another and our service to the greater community.

All: May the water of eternal life sustain us with hope and joy.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Magazines! I've placed some magazines in the church library: Adbusters, geez, and Chicago Wilderness. Claim by today, Aug 2. ~Megan

Tour the Oriental Institute: Lauren Friesen is completing the final stages of docent training at the Oriental Institute at University of Chicago. This is where you can help: the two final steps are practice tours with friends (potentially August 11 at 2 p.m. or August 14 at 10 a.m.). The tour will be no longer than an hour. The Oriental Institute is located on the University of Chicago campus, 58th and University in Hyde Park. RSVP with Lauren: friesenjl1970@gmail.com

Group Exploration: The Undivided Life: “I yearn to be whole, but dividedness often seems the easier choice. A ‘still, small voice’ speaks the truth about me, my work, or the world. I hear it and yet act as if I did not. I withhold a personal gift that might serve a good end or commit myself to a project that I do not really believe in. I keep silent on an issue I should address or actively break faith with one of my own convictions. I deny my inner darkness, giving it more power over me, or I project it onto other people, creating 'enemies' where none exist.” From A Hidden Wholeness: The Journey Toward an Undivided Life, Parker Palmer. If you would like to learn more about joining a group exploration of this book, possibly starting the second week of August, contact Laura Hostetler or Merle Baker.

Christian Peacemaker Teams Prayers for Peacemakers: Pray for participants and speakers at the Peacemaker Congress 2015 this weekend. Ask God to undergird the proceedings, so that the people present may find creative new ways to address the Powers who shut off water to the poor in Detroit and abuse the marginalized in all the locations CPT works.
